"The most beautiful opera festival between Munich and Salzburg: since 1997 the opera performances, which were initiated by artistic director Ludwig Baumann, have steadily grown into an insider's tip for lovers of culture."

The celebration of the 16th opera festival at Gut Immling. Chiemgau 2012

Four opera productions are on the programme:

"The Troubadour" (Verdi), premiere on 22nd June,

"The marriage of Figaro" (Mozart), premiere on 30th June,

"Brandner Kasper - a Bavarian opera" (world premiere on 6th July 2012 at Gut Immling) as well as

"Julius Caesar" (Händel), premiere on 27th July 2012.

In good weather, three "classics at sunset" concerts as open air performances in front of the festival hall are planned:

"Waldeinsamkeit " ("The loneliness of the forest ") on 24th June,

"Nur wer die Sehnsucht kennt" ("Only he who knows what yearning is"), on 19th July. as well as

"An den Mond" ("To the moon") on 2nd August 2012 and the legendary "O Sole Mio"- planned for the evening of 12th July.

The popular "Spanish Night" with flamenco music and dancing performances takes place on 23rd June 2012.

Young visitors can get excited about the children's opera "The Rhine Gold", part 1 from "The Ring of the Nibelung", premiere on 8th July, as well as about the children's culture week from 14th August until 19th August 2012.
